March 26, 2014

The President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We write to seek your written assurances that the United States will renounce any plans to share any sensitive missile data or technology with the Russian Federation.

On December 13, 2011, your Administration stated in a letter that it will "only provide information to Russia that will enhance the effectiveness of our missile defense" and that "the President will retain the right" to share classified information with Russia.

In light of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, we ask that you immediately cancel any plans to provide sensitive missile defense information to Russia, including technical data specifying the burnout velocity (Vbo) of the Standard Missile 3 (SM-3), hit-to-kill technology, and interceptor telemetry. We also ask that you work with our NATO allies to prohibit entry of Russian nationals to any NATO or US missile defense facility, outside of existing treaty obligations.

Sincerely,

Blankin Paul Corkran Tom Cohn
